1. MODEL OVERVIEW & AUSTRALIAN MARKET NOTES

The Italian style icon that charmed Australia. From the original rear-engined 500 'Bambino' tha t motorized post-war migrants and Australian urbanites, to the retro-chic 2008 rebirth (Typ 312 ) and the scorpion-badged Abarth 595 and 695 hot hatches with screaming Record Monza exhausts a nd Brembo brakes.

First sold in Australia in 1957 as the Nuova 500, where it was affectionately branded the 'Fiat Bambino'. The 2008 modern revival was an instant design sensation in Melbourne and Sydney. The performance Abarth range established a rabid enthusiast following for its unapologetic Italian acoustic drama.
