1. MODEL OVERVIEW & AUSTRALIAN MARKET NOTES

The full story of the Mini in Australia: manufactured in Sydney at BMC Zetland (with Australian -developed wind-up windows and quarter-vents), immortalized by outright victory in the 1966 Bat hurst 500, transformed into the Australian-engineered Californian Moke, and reborn as the moder n BMW MINI Cooper and John Cooper Works.

Australian Minis built at Zetland NSW featured heavy adaptations for Australian dust and heat. In 1966, Bob Holden and Rauno Aaltonen drove an Australian-built Cooper S to victory in the Bat hurst 500, leading an unprecedented 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9 finish in class. The open-top Mini Moke w as produced at Zetland until 1981 and exported globally. Modern BMW MINI launched in Australia in 2002.
