1. MODEL OVERVIEW & AUSTRALIAN MARKET NOTES

The Nissan Patrol is an Australian outback giant. In 1962, the G60 Patrol made history as the f irst motor vehicle to cross the Simpson Desert. Across MQ, GQ, GU, and the V8-powered Y62, it h as matched the LandCruiser blow for blow across Australia’s harshest terrain.

The coil-sprung GQ Patrol (also sold as the Ford Maverick under the Button Plan) revolutionized off-road wheel travel and touring comfort in 1987. The TD42 4.2L diesel earned unkillable folk lore status, while the modern Y62 with its 298kW 5.6L V8 and Premcar-engineered Warrior edition s represents the ultimate heavy tow vehicle.
