1. MODEL OVERVIEW & AUSTRALIAN MARKET NOTES

The LandCruiser is the undisputed King of the Australian Outback. First brought to Australia in 1958 for the Snowy Mountains Scheme, it has conquered the country's most unforgiving deserts, pastoral stations, and mines for nearly seven decades.

Australia is the world's most demanding proving ground for the LandCruiser, absorbing over 10% of global production. The model split between the heavy-duty 70 Series workhorse and the comfor t-oriented wagon bloodline (80, 100, 200, 300 Series) is unique in its enduring appeal to rural graziers, miners, and urban luxury buyers alike.
