1. MODEL OVERVIEW & AUSTRALIAN MARKET NOTES

The Toyota LandCruiser Prado is Australia's perennial favorite family and long-distance outback touring 4WD. Bridging the gap between the mid-size RAV4 and heavy-duty LandCruiser wagon, the Prado delivers genuine off-road capability, dual long-range fuel tanks, up to seven seats, and legendary durability.

Launched in Australia in July 1996 to challenge the dominant Mitsubishi Pajero, the Prado rapid ly became Australia's best-selling large 4WD SUV, a position it held for over two decades. Aust ralian specifications prioritized touring range with factory twin fuel tanks (up to 180 litres on 120 and 150 series), robust ladder chassis construction, constant 4WD, and an extensive genu ine accessory range engineered in Melbourne.
