1. MODEL OVERVIEW & AUSTRALIAN MARKET NOTES

The twin legends that transformed Volvo's reputation in Australia. The 240 Series was assembled locally at Clayton, Victoria, setting world safety standards and winning the 1986 Australian T ouring Car Championship as the 'Flying Brick'. Its successor, the 850 Series, introduced front-wheel drive transverse 5-cylinder performance, celebrated by the limited-edition 850 T-5R and t he 850 Super Tourers raced by Peter Brock and Jim Richards.

Locally assembled at Clayton, Victoria by Volvo Australia from 1975 to 1988. In 1986, Kiwi driv er Robbie Francevic drove the Mark Petch/Volvo Dealer Team 240 Turbo to outright victory in the Australian Touring Car Championship?the first and only turbo Volvo to win the ATCC. A decade l ater in 1996, Peter Brock and Jim Richards famously piloted factory Volvo 850 sedans in the Aus tralian Super Touring Championship and Bathurst 1000.
